West Star Aviation, Inc. Awarded Collins Pro Line 21 Certification
For Falcon 50

East Alton, IL, September 25, 2007– West Star Aviation, Inc. is pleased to announce that it has been awarded the STC for the installation of the Collins Pro Line 21 for Falcon 50 aircraft on August 1, 2007.

The certification allows West Star Aviation, Inc., formerly Premier Air Center, to upgrade Falcon 50 aircraft with a new, state of the art avionics package including Collins Pro Line 21 LCD glass displays, dual or triple attitude and heading sources, dual flight management systems, radar, autopilot, radios, air data computers, dual file server units, and a cockpit refurbishment.

The first installation of this upgrade is being performed for a prominent, long-standing, multi Falcon owner/operator. Since the completion of the launch customer's Falcon 50, West Star Aviation in East Alton, Illinois has completed two more Collins Pro Line 21 installations in a Falcon 50. "I feel confident that our experienced team of engineers, designers and installers can complete future Falcon 50 Pro Line 21 packages in a 12-week downtime," says John Hardy, Director of Avionics, West Star Aviation, Inc.
